_____ Applicant understands that this adoption application is not a contract and is subject to Project Spirit's final approval. This application can be declined at any time during the application process for any reason, subject to Project Spirit's discretion. Including but not limited to: Project Spirit feels that the potential adopter is not a good fit with the animal; a health or veterinary issue with the animal arises that causes Project Spirit to deem the animal unadoptable; discovery of a history of animal abuse on the part of the potential adopter, inadequate housing or feed for the animal or lack of credible references.

_____ Applicant understands that an adoption is not considered to be final until Project Spirit approves the application, the potential adopter agrees to the release of liability and the adoption agreement. These are separate documents provided later in the process. And finally the approved adopter takes delivery of the equine.

_____ Applicant understands that Project Spirit reserves the right to stop any adoption during the review process. Initials here will indemnify and hold harmless by any applicant or potential adopter, Project Spirit Equine Rescue and Rehab, its employees, agents, or representatives, individually and collectively, from and against all claims, demands, causes of action, costs, charges, and expenses of every kind and nature, caused by the adoption of the animal.

Signature of Applicant: _____ Date: _____

Understanding the next steps:

Your application will be reviewed, references will be contacted and a home inspection will occur.

You will be contacted after review regardless of application status.

If the application is accepted we will move on to 2 more documents, a liability release, and an adoption agreement.
